Welcome Orientation Programme	An International Student Orientation event is held the Friday before the start of the Michaelmas Term and a welcome dinner for new Erasmus students is held in the evening of the same day. Colleges organise their own induction events.
Information on Language Courses	All students must be proficient in English before arrival. English for academic purposes courses are organised by the Language Centre http://www.langcen.cam.ac.uk/
Course Catalogue (Website)	Languages English Literature Law Chemistry POLIS Please check our website as these will be updated in February 2018: https://www.iso.admin.cam.ac.uk/information-incoming-students
Language used in courses	English. N.B. Some courses in the Faculty of Modern & Medieval languages are taught in the target language. Students should check course listings for details.
College membership and accommodation	Colleges are much more than halls of residence; accepted students will be living, eating, studying and socialising in a College. The College also provides pastoral, non-academic support. For information on the Colleges, please see http://www.cam.ac.uk/colleges/ The process of securing a College can be lengthy. All decisions will usually be made by 31 August (for Michaelmas term). Please also note that due to extremely limited places, it is not possible for students to choose a College and it is likely that they will not be offered a second choice. If it is not possible to find College accommodation, or a student prefers to find their own place to live, the University's Accommodation Service can be used. http://www.accommodation.cam.ac.uk/
Estimated costs of living (housing, food, transportation, etc.)	Students should expect living costs for the year to be around £9,420. Students should have sufficient finances for the duration of their stay at Cambridge. Please note that students may be asked for financial guarantees to cover accommodation costs. It is not possible for students to undertake paid work during their study or to claim College/University financial aid. Erasmus grants are to be paid by the home university, not the host university.
