Language Requirements and Courses

Teaching Languages	French, German, English
Language Requirements	No official certificate is required. Student must have sufficient oral and written proficiency in the study language(s) corresponding to the courses they have listed on their learning agreement. Please check the teaching language of each course in the course catalogue. The minimum expected level to succeed at taking notes and writing papers is B1 upon arrival in Fribourg (Common European Framework of Reference for Languages).
Pre-semester – Intensive Language Courses	A French intensive course for different levels including a programme of cultural and sports activities is offered before the semester starts: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• 3 weeks before the fall semester: 26.08.2019 -13.09.2019; 90 hours / 6 credits• 2 weeks before the spring semester: 03.02.2020 - 14.02.2020; 60 hours / 4 credits There may be an offer for a German intensive course as well but this will be decided at the beginning of 2020. Please check the website. More information: Pre-Semester Intensive Courses
Language Center at the University	During the semester language courses are offered in French, German, Italian and English at level A1 to C2. They are free of charge for all students. Online registration opens from two weeks before the beginning of the semester (fall semester: 31st August 2020; spring semester: 8th February 2021). First students have to pass an online placement test and can then register for a course at their level. More information: Language Centre.

Courses and Grades

Course Catalogue	www.unifr.ch/timetable Different filters can be used to facilitate the search (semester, language, level etc.).
Grading System	Students are assessed either by oral or written exams or by papers. The credit system is based on the European Credit Transfer System ECTS. One ECTS credit corresponds to a workload of 25 to 30 hours. More information: Credit and Grading System
Credit Load	More than 30 ECTS per semester are not recommended. There is no minimum of ECTS required by the University of Fribourg, but a reasonable workload is expected. Students should indicate if they do any thesis research. Exchange students usually take fewer courses if they study in a foreign language. This has to be discussed prior to departure with the home coordinator.
Transcript of Records	Transcripts of records are issued to each student: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Around mid-March for the Fall Semester- Around mid-July for the Spring Semester or the Academic Year If a student writes a paper after the examination period, the issue of the Transcript of records will be therefore delayed.

Nomination and Application Procedure

Nomination Procedure	IROs send their nominations by email to international-incoming@unifr.ch with the name and surname of the student, gender, nationality, date of birth, email address, field of study, level of study and study period. Deadlines for the nominations: end of April for the fall semester and end of September for the spring semester, but late nominations are possible, please contact us.
-----------------------------	--

Application Procedure After reception of the nomination an online application link is sent to the student by email. This is a personal link, which can be used only once.

For stays starting in fall application links are sent starting from March; for stays during the spring semester, they are sent starting from September.

The student has to upload the following documents:

1. Summary of the application, signed by the student and her or his home coordinator
2. Course list or learning agreement (to be found in the online application)
3. Official transcript of former records
4. Europass language passport (to be found in the online application)
5. Curriculum vitae
6. Checkliste (to be found in the online application)
7. Copy of the passport

At the end of the application procedure students find the information regarding the application for housing (Apartis residencies) and the pre-semester language intensive course.
